

EQUINE ASSISTED LEADERSHIP: LEAD WITH INTENTION AND CRAFT A HEALTHY WORKPLACE CULTURE

Leave this workshop with the foundational qualities of empowering leadership!

Horses look for leaders who are confident, consistent, compassionate and who communicate clearly. This one-day workshop offers a unique approach to leadership development. Leadership concepts discussed in a classroom are brought to life using Equine Assisted Learning (EAL), resulting in real-time feedback and an unforgettable learning experience. Leave this workshop with a better understanding of these foundational qualities of empowering leadership. This workshop is a blend of classroom and outdoor activities.
