

Rhonda Belczyk: Bio

Rhonda is an instructor in the Human Services Program at Selkirk College in Castlegar. She has a Master of Social Work degree with a specialty in Leadership.

Rhonda has been a social worker for 25 years. For the first 23 years of her career, she worked for the Ministry of Children and Family Development as a front-line child protection social worker, a supervisor of an integrated service team, and as a director with the Ministry's Provincial Practice Branch. Rhonda received a Premier's Award in the Emerging Leader category in 2014 in recognition of the work she has done in the area of community development, service coordination, and collaborative practice.

With much gratitude, Rhonda lives, works and plays in the community of Castlegar BC, the unceded territory of the Sinixt, Ktunaxa, Okanagan, and Shuswap people.
